PARK BRANCH WRECK

Freight Cars Leave Track and Delay Passenger For Nearly Two Hours.

Two cars of a Rio Grande freight train left the track at 2:45 p. m. yesterday at Dale station, on the Park City branch. The wheels ran on the ties for 206 feet before the train could be brought to a standstill, but they did not overturn.

The actual damage was slight, but the passenger train due to arrive in

The actual damage was, slight, but the passenger train due to arrive in the city at 5:15 p. m. was blockaded, and it was necessary to send out another train to bring in the passengers. They reached Salt Lake an hour and fifty minutes behind schedule time.

A wrecking train which was sent to the scene got the cars back on the track later in the evening.
